

Danny Boy

(The Londonderry Air)

Traditional melody
Lyrics: Frederic Weatherly

Ballad

Oh Da-nny
And if you

Boy, the pipes, the pipes are c - a - lling, from glen to come, when all the flowers are d - y - ing, And i am glen dead, and down the moun - tain side. The su - mmer's as dead i may well be. You'll come and gone find and all the flo - wers d - y - ing. 'tis you, 'tis the place where I am I - y - ing, and kneel and you must go and i must bide. But come ye say an say an "ave" for me. And i shall back when su - mmer's in the m - ea - dow, or when the hear, tho' soft you tread a - bo - ve me, And all my va - lley's hushed and white with snow. And I'll be dreams will warm and swee - ter be. If you'll not

D

29 G^{maj7} C^{maj7} $C^{#o}$ G/D Cm^6 here in sun - shine or in sh - a - dow, oh Da - nny fail to tell me that you lo - ve me, I'll sim - ply

33 Bm^7 $E^{7(b9)}$ Am^7 D^9 G^6 Cm^6 boy, oh da - nny boy i love you so. I'll sim - ply sleep in peace un - til you come to me.

37 Bm^7 $E^{7(b9)}$ Am^7 D^9 G^6

sleep in peace un - til you come to me.
rall.